

YOU CAN'T ALWAYS GET WHAT YOU WANT

Endless election cycles seem to be the new normal in the U.S. November cannot come soon enough! Half the country will probably not be happy with the outcome. Here are some loosely identified issues:

Far-Left Progressives	Democrats	Republicans	Far-Right Conservatives
Liberal justice system	Legalized abortion	Secure borders	Return to law and order
More socialized programs	More gun control legislation	Immigration reform	Balanced budget/spending
Decriminalizing marijuana	Climate change regulations	Domestic energy production	Freedom to own a gun
College loan forgiveness	LGBTQ+ equality	Fewer regulations	Education reform
Higher income, higher taxes		Lower inflation and taxes

Photo credit: "J. Wilds/Hulton Archive via Getty Images"

*"You can't always get what you want...
but you get what you need."
- The Rolling Stones*

What do we agree on? We value our freedom. And being Americans. We might have a consensus on "older" politicians leaving office. Most of us are tired of spending on endless wars and our country's initiative to help other nations.

We're watching China build infrastructure in Africa and South America. They're also building up their military at home and around the world. Right now, the U.S. is letting the Houthis control the entrance into the Suez Canal while our supply chain is backing up again.

Everybody has an opinion on opinions. I would say we all want some calm, less rancor, less division and more getting along. We want some "Peace in the Valley."

Lij Uihlein

Let's enjoy the fall and winter seasons – and especially football season! Let's have a little fun watching the Kansas City Chiefs defend their title and maybe Travis Kelce and Taylor Swift will spice things up again – together as Americans.

OUR PEOPLE MAKE THE DIFFERENCE

